Programme Deposit

If you are an international student applying for a taught programme, and will be paying your tuition fees yourself, you a required to pay a compulsory deposit. You will be required to pay a minimum of 1000 GBP but may pay up to the full cost of t tuition fee for the first year. The deadline for the payment of the deposit is 1 August, however you are encouraged to pay yc deposit as early as possible. The payment of a deposit is likely to ease your application for a visa. The appropriate support your visa application will not be issued by the University until this deposit has been paid. Students whose fees are being pa by an external organisation or sponsor (for example, a government department, company or charity) are not required to pay deposit. The organisation paying your fees will be invoiced and requested to pay the full fee once you have registered on t programme of study.

You can pay this deposit online at <http://bris.ac.uk/online-payments/deposits> using a credit or debit card. Alternatively you c pay through our PaytoStudy account at <http://www.bristol.ac.uk/paytostudy>. PaytoStudy is an international payment soluti which offers competitive exchange rates. Where PaytoStudy has a local bank account, all wire fee charges will be eliminat and you will be able to pay in your local currency to a local bank account.

The deposit is non-transferable and non-refundable except under the circumstances outlined in the International Depos Refund Policy which is available at <http://www.bris.ac.uk/academicregistry/office/policies/idrp.html>. You may pay your deposit advance of meeting the conditions of your offer. If you subsequently fail to meet the conditions attached to your offer and a therefore rejected from your course on academic grounds then a refund will be made to you. To make the payment you v need your student number which is 1509950.

Please make sure your contact details are kept up to date, especially your email address, as we will use this to send y important information about your offer to study at Bristol. You can update your contact details by logging into your applicati and selecting 'Update Profile'.
